

net 6 3:5 PM.
It is one of the trains of the day as we have to change only at Bletchley.

I haven't much news, but what there is,
if any, can keep until the weekend. I am extraordinarily busy this week as Collins is on leave, and the pressure of work is correspondingly greater.

I hope you and Dad are keeping well.

Our best love to both of you,

Your son

Harold.

As you haven't seen us for so long I append this recent group
so that you shall recognize us
when we arrive.
