My dearest Mother,

Thank you for your nice letter. I thought you would be interested in the newspaper report. Many other papers had similar statements.
'Flight' is the most comprehensive; I will show it you soon. I hope the references will be as complimentary in a year's time: it will not be easy to satisfy all the interests we are supposed to serve.

Our manservant is shaping well. He is a quite disappointed looking person.

The outside of the house is being cleaned up now. So we shall be looking quite smart when you come to see us. I hope we can arrange a date
soon.

With love from us all,
Your own son
Harold

P.S. The boys like their school. C. is very pally with the son of the Siamese Ambassador!
