My dearest Mother,
History of visit to Paris.

Fri. 25th Nov. Cancelled airline tickets as weather was bad and machines new.

Sat. 26th Nov. Left Victoria at 11 am. on the Golden Arrow.
Good crossing, though ship rolled.
Ship seemed full of aircraft people. Arrived Paris 5.45.
Went to dinner with some people named Villiers. They took us to the Bal Tabarin.

Sun. 27th Nov. Went to Aero Show.
Late afternoon went to Louvre.
Late still went to the pictures with a friend. Then dinner at the Café de la Paix. And so to bed

Mon. the 28th Nov. Meetings all day for me. Mayorie out with M^{rs} Villiers in the morning visiting Pagum & Chanel, & out shopping with Elles in afternoon. Dinner at hotel.

Tues the 29th Nov. Meetings all day for me. M. attending dress shows with the rest M^{rs} V.
We took the Villiers to dinner
& the Casino — Maurice Chevalier.

Wed. the 30th Nov. M. out with M^{rs} Stewart shopping in morning.
She had lunch at the Ritz with the r. M^{rs} V. The Stewarts & we messed about in the afternoon pottering around, & had tea at Rimpelmayers in the Rue de Rivoli. We had dîner à deux at the Café de la Paix & then caught

The train-ferry leaving Paris at 9.50. We were awakened by the rolling of the boat at 4.30, were up at 5.45 and reach Dover at 6.20 am. Home about 9.30 am. And so to work.

We have been out to Windsor this afternoon with Sam, Christopher taking tea at the Siamese Legation. He is not yet back at the time of writing.

I hope you are feeling better. We all send love.

Your own son

Carold
